Microsoft 365 and Teams have transformed the way employees communicate and disparate teams connect and collaborate, offering a streamlined alternative to in-person meetings and traditional email. However, a Microsoft 365 and Teams license requires a professional rollout and training to ensure successful adoption and productivity gains.

The Unisys Managed Microsoft 365 and Teams solution is designed to bridge this gap, offering expert deployment and support services. The solution not only maximizes worker usage but also boosts the adoption of Microsoft's continually expanding software features. Enhance employee collaboration and productivity, no matter where they work. Unisys can handle every stage of your Microsoft 365 and Teams journey, from strategy and implementation to user adoption.
